

The Barstow Alexander Technique Institute

Discover the joy of easy and comfortable movement at the 32nd Annual Barstow Institute Workshop

Marjorie Barstow
1899 - 1995

June 17 - 24, 2006

Doane College
Crete, Nebraska

The Alexander Technique is a simple, practical method for learning to improve freedom and ease of movement while regaining natural coordination.

The Technique teaches the use of the appropriate amount of effort for a particular activity, giving you more energy for all your activities.

Marjorie Barstow was renowned for seeking simpler, more effective ways to communicate her understanding and love of the Alexander Technique. The teachers she trained happily continue her tradition at the Institute.

"I am 71 years old, and this is only the second time in my life that a week-long workshop has been truly life-altering. I am sold on the Barstow Alexander Institute."

Patricia Sunderland, retired psychologist
